

Please keep the do not call list as it is. I have 3 small children and value our family time. The phone ringing during dinner or when the children are in bed and my husband and I are trying to catch up and stay connected is terribly upsetting. Families have enough distractions, time together is valuable and important. Please do not allow these people to call us if we have asked to be on the do not call list.

Thank you